PAVILION UPDATE

The Parish Council has agreed in principle to take over Broughton Pavilion subject to negotiation of a satisfactory contract with Milton Keynes Council.

Milton Keynes Council are in discussions with a potential provider for the Brooklands Pavilion & hope to make an announcement about this before the end of June.

Thank you to the resident who sent us this picture

We thought this little park (on the corner of Armada Avenue and Lancastria Lane) had been handed over to the Parks Trust by the Council long ago. Uroy's trying to find out what's happened.

THANK YOU...

....for the overall majority you gave Sam last month:

Sam Crooks	1971	51.1%
Conservative	1269	32.9%
Labour	615	16.0%
Majority:	702

Sam writes:

Thank you to everyone who took the trouble to vote in the election, for whatever party.

Particular thanks to those who supported me and the Focus team. My thanks also to my opponents for a very spirited campaign, completely free from the hostility and rancour that happened in other areas.

And just to emphasise - I represent every resident. How people vote has no bearing on the help that I will try to give if asked.

BROOKLANDS SQUARE

Retailers and residents around Brooklands Square have been concerned about bad behaviour among children after school.

Kerrie's leading on this. She's spoken to both Walton High and the Police. The issue's been raised in class assemblies & there've been extra police patrols.

Have things improved? Let Kerrie know on:

OPERATION#SAVESHRIMPY

Shrimp & Doodle's on Brooklands Square but completely hidden (to find it, stand in front of Sainsburys & go down the alleyway to your left).

Owner Kayleigh needs more customers. She sells craft goods and offers free craft sessions to children. You can check out her products here:

SPEED BUMPS - YES OR NO?

The Council has granted money to slow down roads on Brooklands. Some residents want bumps. Others prefer alternative road safety measures. Please tell us what YOU think.

We're running a poll on our website. Here's the link:

THE JUBILEE ON BROUGHTON

Dancing at the Hindu Centre on Ferry Meadows Close

A packed crowd at the Hungry Horse despite the weather. Thank you to the Broughton and Brooklands Connectors for making this happen, and to the pub for providing the venue.
